

Robert Morris,
Baritone

Voice Teacher

Now accepting...

- Serious beginning voice pupils from age 15 and up
- Advanced singers for coaching, especially those who want to explore the field of German Lieder

Specializing in (but not limited to):

- Italian vocal technique
- Italian songs and opera
- German Lieder literature
- Program building and concert preparation

"Bob" as he appeared for nearly 11 years singing at an Italian restaurant in Albuquerque

"After over half a century of professional singing, it is now time for me to do what I've always dreamed of doing: to pass on to a new generation the knowledge and experience I have accumulated over these many years."

Soloist with:

New Mexico Symphony Orchestra:

Beethoven's 9th Symphony & Haendel's "Messiah"

Carnegie Hall and New York Town Hall:

Gounod's "Faust" & Albright's "Hopitu"

Albuquerque Civic Light Opera:

Captain von Trapp in "The Sound of Music"

Bach Chor: Karlsruhe, Germany:

Haendel's "Messias"

Haydn's "Die Jahreszeiten"

Also Command Performances at the Bundesgartenschau on the "Seebuehne" and Castle Terrace

Bob

Call 892-7236 or visit www.RobertLMorris.com